The Canadian liner Aorangi was at Pacific Mail wharf yesterday from the Colonies en route to Victoria. She arrived at noon with a light cargo and four passengers and sailed at midnight with a number of passengers from this port and eighty-four in transit.

The sailing dates of vessels on the berth for Island ports in San Francisco when the Australia sailed were as follows: Bark Annie Johnson, for Hilo, April 11th. For Honolulu: Schooner Robert Lewers, April 7th; bark Mauna Ala, April 9th, and ship Fort George, April 6th.

The schooner Alton, after being out from Kailua over six days finally arrived in port last evening. Her sails are split and the staunch little schoonadverse winds for the past week. It was noon yesterday when she was sighted off Barber's Point and she had a hard time making the harbor.

The liner Australia, with forty-one cabin and forty-six steerage passengers, thirty-seven bags of mail and a large cargo of merchandise, docked at Fort street wharf yesterday morning from San Francisco. As soon as the ship Geo. R. Skolfield could be moved from Oceanic wharf, where she was loading sugar, the Australia moved up m., touching at Honoipu, Mahukona to that berth. The Australia returns to San Francisco next Thursday.
